The Secret

Marrakech, Morocco

Constructed in the heart of the ancient city of Marrakech, artist and designer Kris Ruhs' The Secret is a secluded slice of heaven. This Moroccan mansion is nestled within 2,200 square meters of cultivated bamboo, rose bushes, fish ponds, tropical plants, and banana trees. While this lavish hideaway was designed with maximum privacy in mind, the 3-car garage ensures owner accessibility. Outlined by several flavours of traditional Moroccan architecture and contemporary designs, all rooms incorporate French doors and expressive windows. Additionally, 9 bedrooms, 12 fireplaces, a billiard room, a gym, and a vast roof deck patio insure complete indulgence. The villa also offers visitors a variety of options when it comes to cooling off, featuring 14 baths, 3 Hammam, and a massive indoor pool. The Secret is the perfect home for the discerning individual seeking a quiet escape from the bustle of daily living.
